

Psalm 104 Hallelujah!

What connected Psalms 101 – 103?

What is the connection between Psalms 104 – 105?

What other Psalms have this connection?

What is the connection between Psalm 103 and 104, and thus between all four of the last Psalms of Book IV?

Has there been an anticipation of this conclusion in Book IV?

Yahweh reigns only over Israel, His Chosen People. Right?

How does the NIV blur the preciseness in expression between the two phrases found in 103, 104 and 104, 105, and 106?

Psalm 103

In 105 and 106 we are treated to a recounting of the history of God's dealings with Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, but here we get a different history. History of what?

Vs 1 a

General purpose

Vss 1b- 5

Which days?

Vss 6 – 18

Which day? What other event?

Vss 19 – 23

Which day?

Vss 24 – 26

Which day?

Seventh day, which verse(s)?

Vss 27 – 32

Dependence of all living upon God

Vss 33 – 34

Psalmists (and singers) Resolution

Vs 35

A wish that will be fulfilled, and Praise